Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out how Stamford Bridge Football Club (SBFC) uses and protects any information that you give to us.

Keeping your data safe

SBFC are committed to keeping your personal data safe and secure, and handling it in accordance with our legal obligations. This Privacy Policy sets out in detail the purposes for which we process your personal data, who we share it with, what rights you have in relation to that data and everything else we think it's important for you to know.

Who are we?

SBFC provides local amateur Football for Boys and Girls from 4 years old up to open aged Adult Football.

Based in the village of Stamford Bridge on the outskirts of York. We welcome all ages and ability levels.

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out how SBFC uses and protects any information that you give SBFC

SBFC is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, and then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

We invite you to contact us if you have questions about this policy. You may contact us by mail at the following address:

Stamford Bridge Football Club, Low Catton Road, Stamford Bridge, York, YO41 1DZ

or by email at: adamhargreaves1982@hotmail.co.uk

SBFC may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page (www.stamfordbridgefootballclub/privacypolicy) from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy is effective from 25/11/2018.

What information we collect

The information we collect depends on your relationship with us. You may be a member; someone interested in our news and marketing information; a visitor to our website, or a potential parents/carers or player. We have listed the different information we collect in the sections below.

Website visitors

If you are visiting our website then we will store pieces of information in your browser called cookies. A cookie is a small file that is stored on your computer and allows websites to 'remember' you, either for the duration of your visit (a 'session cookie') or for repeat visits (a 'persistent cookie'). Cookies allow websites to, among other things, remember if you have logged in or not, remember your preferences and tailor your experience of the website.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to meet our customer's needs and expectations. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and the data is not personally-identifiable.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us and the data provided by your browser (i.e. what type of browser you are using).

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser settings to decline cookies if you prefer; however, this may prevent you from taking full advantage of the functionality of a website.

We do not attempt to determine from the tracking information the identity of anyone visiting the site.

Members

When you sign up for a SBFC account, becoming a member we will collect further information. We will collect the following:

- Your name
- Telephone number(s)
- Address
- Email address

We use this information to:

- to send you emails relating to SBFC news and events.
- to contact you about technical issues.
- to verify your details where we suspect fraudulent use of our services.
- to notify you of changes to terms and conditions.

STAMFORD BRIDGE FOOTBALL CLUB

www.stamfordbridgefootballclub.co.uk

We will not give any data to any other party without thoroughly confirming the request (and its consequences) with you by email.

The only exception to this policy is when SBFC are presented with a legitimate legal warrant. In this instance we have notable exceptions to this policy:

- We may have to provide some of all your data to law enforcement authorities without informing you, and

Where this occurs:

- We will only comply with the letter of any order, filtering and removing extraneous data.
- We will inform you of the order, if we are able, as soon as we can or immediately after we have provided the data.

The reason that we must do this in secret is because by informing you of information that you may not want us to release, you might choose to delete the information we've been requested to retrieve. That deletion would risk putting SBFC in contempt of court, and leave us open to prosecution.

Marketing subscriber

If you wish to receive marketing communication from us, we will collect your name and email address, from our subscribe consent sign up at the bottom of our home page. Alternatively, if you have expressed interest in one of our events we will also collect your name and email address as consent to subscribe to our marketing communication.

- Use this information to send you emails with details of news and events that we think you may be interested in.
- Never sell your details to anyone else.
- Stop sending you emails as soon as you notify us you do not wish to receive them.

The way we handle your data for marketing reasons doesn't change whether you are a member or not. Even as a member you would still need to give us permission to send you marketing emails via our subscribe button or registering event interest.

You can unsubscribe at any time by emailing adamhargreaves1982@hotmail.co.uk

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and committee procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.
